2. COMPLAINT INVESTIGATION AND COMMISSION'S FINDINGS

2.1 On 15 August 2008 the Commission received a complaint against Pentel South Africa from Desco Agencies, a distributor of stationery products. The Complainant, in its complaint alleged that Pentel South Africa is engaged in the practice of minimum resale price maintenance in contravention of section 5(2) of the Act. The allegation was that the Complainant was not allowed to sell below Pentel South Africa's published price list, thus forcing it to be uncompetitive. The said allegations were based on correspondences exchanged between Pentel South Africa and the Complainant. Subsequent to submitting this complaint, the Complainant withdrew same on 06 March 2009. Based on the investigation conducted thus far, the Commission initiated the complaint.

2.2 During the course of the investigation of the complaint, the Commission found that:

2.2.1 At all relevant time of the complaint Pentel South Africa was a branch and sole importer in South Africa of stationery products of Pentel Japan. Its main function was to conduct all sales and marketing within Southern Africa on behalf of Pentel Japan.

2.2.2 Pentel South Africa distributes these products through independent distributors who are located across South Africa. At the time of the alleged contravention, the following were the distributors appointed by Pentel:

2.2.2.1 PWS Group (Includes PWS Pretoria, PWS Johannesburg, PWS Cape Town and PWS Durban);

2.2.2.2 BSC Manufacturing (Pty) Ltd;

2.2.2.3 Trefoil Manufacturing (Pty) Ltd;

2.2.2.4 Flip File;

2.2.2.5 Desco Agencies CC

2.2.2.6 Interstate Group (includes Interstate Cape Town, Interstate Port Elizabeth and Interstate Durban.

2.2.3 Pentel South Africa and its distributors are considered to be in a supplier-customer relationship and hence are in a vertical relationship as contemplated in section 5 of the Act. The relevant product market is for the distribution of stationery products to distributors.

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, located in the bottom right corner of the page. The signature appears to be a combination of initials and a surname, possibly 'M. R. 8'.

- 2.2.4 There is an agreement/understanding between Pentel South Africa and its customers that the distributors would purchase stationery products at prices reflected on Pentel South Africa's price list. Distributors in return are required to resell stationery products as per prices published on the price list taking the discount offered to them by Pentel South Africa as their profit margin.
- 2.2.5 Pentel South Africa concludes a distribution agreement with its distributors which is materially in the same terms for all distributors. In terms of clause 3 of the distribution agreement, it is compulsory for the distributors to charge prices as reflected on Pentel South Africa's price list hence the prevailing prices to be charged when re-selling were commonly understood by the distributors.
- 2.2.6 Sanctions, in the form of threats of cancellation of the distribution agreement and withdrawal of the discount afforded to eligible distributors, were put in place to enforce the implementation of Pentel South Africa's price lists. These sanctions were considered to be credible enough to penalize non-compliance by distributors.
- 2.2.7 The Commission's investigation revealed that, although the distribution agreement was materially the same for all distributors, Pentel South Africa only enforced compliance with its price list in one geographic area, Port Elizabeth in the Eastern Cape Province and only in relation to the Complainant.

3. ADMISSION

- 3.1 Pentel South Africa admits that it contravened section 5(2) of the Act in that it dictated the minimum resale price of stationery products to the Complainant as alleged in preceding clauses.

4 AGREEMENT CONCERNING FUTURE CONDUCT

- 5.2 The parties have agreed that Pentel South Africa will pay an administrative penalty in the sum of R2 840 451.00 (two million eight hundred and forty thousand four hundred and fifty-one rands only) being 3.41% of Pentel South Africa's total turnover in the 2011 financial year.
