2. The Complaint and the Commission's Investigation

2.1. During July 2009, the Commission initiated two complaints against the Respondents concerning allegations of a contravention of section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Competition Act in relation to certain notarial deeds of restraint and a settlement agreement entered into between the Respondents pursuant to various objections lodged in relation to town planning issues, and which are more fully described below :

2.1.1. The Bedford Square Settlement Agreement, comprising a settlement agreement dated 4 November 2003 containing various terms of settlement, including that the Bedford Square Restraint is registered;

2.1.2. The Bedford Square Restraint, comprising a notarial deed of restraint registered on 12 July 2004 over the title deed of Erf 39 Bedford Gardens owned by Bedford Square Properties (i.e. Bedford Square) in favour of Liberty Group and Erf 179, which restricts Bedford Square Properties or its successors in title from leasing retail space to Woolworths and Mica for a period of 11 years; and

2.1.3. The Bedford Centre Restraint, comprising a notarial deed of restraint registered on 12 July 2004 over the title deeds of properties described as Erf 50, 51, 54 and 64 of Bedford Gardens Township (i.e. the Bedford Centre) owned by Win Twice in favour of Liberty Group and Erf 179, which restricts Win Twice from leasing retail space to Woolworths for a period of 15 years.

2.2. These complaints were initiated after the Commission had investigated and non-referred a complaint lodged by Bedford Square Properties against Liberty Group in respect of alleged contraventions of section 8(d)(i) of the Competition Act. The Commission consolidated the two complaints for purposes of its investigation in accordance with Rule 17(2) of the Commission Rules.

3. The Commission's findings

- 3.1. The Commission's investigations established that the Bedford Square Restraint was concluded between Liberty Group, Erf 179 and Bedford Square Properties, in settlement of an objection lodged by the former two parties with the Townships Board against the LCGG's decision to approve a rezoning application brought by Bedford Square Properties to develop a mixed offering shopping centre ultimately comprising Bedford Square.
- 3.2. Further, the Commission found that the Bedford Centre Restraint was concluded to settle disputes concerning an application by Win Twice for the rezoning of the Bedford Centre so as to extend the Bedford Centre's bulk (square meterage) in a node in which, at the time, Liberty Group felt there to be an oversupply of retail space. Before such rezoning application was heard by the appropriate town planning authority, Liberty, Erf 179, BOE Bank and Win Twice entered into the Bedford Centre Settlement Agreement giving rise to the Bedford Centre Restraint.
- 3.3. The Commission however found that although the Settlement Agreements were entered into by the Respondents in settlement of objections and negotiations regulated by town-planning legislation, a consequence of the Restraints was that they exceeded the scope of such legislation in that Liberty, Erf 179, Bedford Square Properties and Win Twice, in agreeing the terms set out in the Restraints, contravened section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Competition Act as follows :
- 3.3.1. Liberty Group as owner of Eastgate, Erf 179 as owner of Village View and Bedford Square Properties as owner of Bedford Square divided markets by agreeing that Bedford Square Properties be restrained from leasing retail space to Woolworths and Mica in Bedford Square for a period of 11 years; and
- 3.3.2. Liberty Group as owner of Eastgate, Erf 179 as owner of Village View and Win Twice as owner of Bedford Centre divided markets by agreeing that Win Twice be restrained from leasing retail space to Woolworths in Bedford Centre for a period of 15 years.

4. Admission of Liability

Liberty Group admits that the Restraints contravened section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Competition Act.

5. Future Conduct

5.1. Liberty Group confirms that the conduct under investigation has already ceased and it undertakes -

5.1.1. not to divide markets by allocating customers in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Competition Act;

5.1.2. not to enforce the Restraints nor to require any of either Bedford Square Properties or Win Twice (or their successors in title) to abide by the Restraints;

5.1.3. to develop and implement a compliance programme, with corporate governance, designed to ensure that all its relevant employees are aware of the provisions of the Competition Act and do not contravene them; and to submit a copy of the aforementioned compliance programme outlined above to the Commission within 90 business days of the date of confirmation of this Consent Agreement as an order of the Tribunal.

6. Administrative Penalty

- 6.1. In terms of section 58(1) (a) (iii), and 59(2) and (3) of the Competition Act, Liberty Group is liable to pay an administrative penalty.
- 6.2. The parties have agreed that Liberty Group should pay an administrative penalty of 2.5% of Liberty Group's retail property portfolio's total turnover for the financial year ended 2008, being an amount of R18 811 708.55 within thirty days of the confirmation of this Consent Agreement as an order of the Tribunal.
- 6.3. Liberty Group shall pay the administrative penalty into the following bank account of the Commission:

Name of Account: THE COMPETITION COMMISSION

Bank name: ABSA BANK PRETORIA

Account No: 4050778576

Branch Code: 323345

- 6.4. The Commission will pay the administrative penalty into the National Revenue Fund in terms of Section 59(4) of the Competition Act.

7. Full and Final Settlement

This agreement, upon confirmation as a consent order by the Tribunal, is entered into in full and final settlement and concludes all proceedings between the Commission and Liberty Group relating to the alleged contravention of section 4(1)(b) by Liberty Group and/or its subsidiaries of the Competition Act that are the subject of the Commission's investigations under case numbers 2009Jul4569 and 2009Jul4571.
