2. INVESTIGATION AND FINDINGS OF THE COMMISSION

- 2.1. On 04 June 2015, the Commissioner initiated a complaint in terms of section 49B(1) of the Act, whereby it is alleged that the Respondents entered into an agreement to fix the selling price of contact centre software services and divide the market by allocating products and customers amongst each other in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(i) and (ii) of the Act.
- 2.2. The Commission's investigation under Case No's. 2015JUN0306 revealed the following:
- 2.2.1. In terms of the price fixing agreement, the Respondents agreed that they will charge R750 to maintenance customers and R950 to non-maintenance customers.
- 2.2.2. Maintenance customers are customers who have entered into maintenance agreements with the Respondents after purchasing their products. These agreements give customers the comfort of having a service provider that will fix any problems that a maintenance customer may have with a product. Non-maintenance customers are customers who just call in once to request assistance with a product.

2.2.3. In terms of the market division agreement, the Respondents agreed that Elingo will offer products under the licences of Shoretel and Interactive Intelligence, while Business Solutions will offer products under the licences of Verint, Broadsoft and Genesys to customers of contact centre software services.

2.2.4. These are software products that make up the technology that is used in call centres. The varying services that these products provide include call distribution, voice recording, process automation, computer telephone integration and work force management. The kind of technology that a customer receives, is dependent on the product that a customer buys. Some products require equipment to be installed at a customer's premises, and some do not. With some products, customers just need to connect to a cloud to be able to use the product.

2.2.5. The Respondents also agreed that whenever Business Solutions wished to approach a potential customer, a discussion with Elingo had to first take place in order to establish if the customer belongs to Elingo. Once a determination was made, a decision would be taken whether Business Solutions should go ahead and approach such a customer.

3. ADMISSION

3.1. Elingo admits that it entered into an agreement with Business Solutions to fix the price charged to maintenance and non-maintenance customers in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(i) of the Act.

3.2. Elingo also admits that it divided markets by allocating products and customers in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Act.

4. CESSATION

4.1. Elingo confirms that it has ceased engaging in the conduct set out in clause 2.2 above.

4.2. The Respondents were the only parties to this agreement.

5. ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY

5.1. Elingo agrees that it is liable to pay an administrative penalty of R512 400 (Five Hundred and Twelve Thousand and Four Hundred Rand). This amount is less than 10% of Elingo's annual turnover for the financial year ended 2014.

5.2. Elingo will pay a lump sum of R128 100 (One Hundred and Twenty-Eight Thousand and Hundred Rand) to the Commission within 30 days of the confirmation of the Consent Agreement as an order of the Tribunal. Thereafter the remaining R384 300 (Three Hundred and Eighty-Four Thousand and Three Hundred) will be paid over a 3 month period, in three equal instalments as follows:

5.3. The first instalment of R128 100 on or before 31 May 2018.

5.4. The second instalment of R128 100 on or before 30 June 2018.

5.5. The third instalment of R128 100 on or before 31 July 2018.

5.6. The payment shall be made into the Commission's bank account, details of which are as follows:

Bank name: Absa Bank

Branch name: Pretoria

Account holder: Competition Commission Fees Account

Account number: 4087641778

Account type: Current Account

Branch Code: 632005

Reference: 2015JUN0306 / ELINGO

5.7. The penalty will be paid over by the Commission to the National Revenue Fund in accordance with section 59(4) of the Act.

6. AGREEMENT REGARDING FUTURE CONDUCT

6.1. Elingo undertakes to refrain from engaging in any anti-competitive conduct in contravention of the Act in future.

6.2. Elingo will implement and monitor a competition law compliance programme incorporating corporate governance designed to ensure that its employees, management, directors and agents do not engage in future contraventions of the Act. In particular, such compliance programme will include mechanisms for the monitoring and detection of any contraventions of the Act.

6.3. Elingo will provide the Commission with a copy of the competition law compliance programme within 60 days after confirmation of the Consent Agreement as an order by the Competition Tribunal.

6.4. Elingo shall circulate a statement summarising the contents of this Consent Agreement to all management and operational staff employed at Elingo within 60 (sixty) business days from the date of confirmation of this Consent Agreement as an order by the Tribunal.

7. FULL AND FINAL SETTLEMENT

This Consent Agreement is entered into in full and final settlement of the Commission's investigation under Case No: 2015JUN0306 and upon confirmation as an order of the Tribunal, concludes all proceedings between the Commission and Elingo relating to the collusive conduct as admitted in paragraph 3 above.
