Decided on : 27 July 2015

ORDER

Following the hearing on 27 July 2015, The Competition Tribunal orders as follows:

1. The matter is postponed sine die;
2. The Competition Commission ("Commission") is given until 30 November 2015 to investigate whether the transaction in casu constitutes a merger;

3. On or before 30 November 2015, the Commission must give notice to all parties in these proceedings as to whether the transaction constitutes a merger or not;

3.1 Should the Commission conclude that the transaction constitutes a merger, it should advise all parties of any further procedural steps it will take;

3.2 Should the Commission conclude that the transaction does not constitute a merger, the applicants may approach the Registrar of the Competition Tribunal to have this matter set down for hearing on the same papers upon which the matter was initially brought. Parties will be afforded the opportunity to supplement their papers should the need arise.

4. There are no orders as to costs.
