ORDER

Having heard Counsel for the parties, the Competition Tribunal ("Tribunal") makes the following order:

1. The applicant, Weelee Pty (Ltd) ("Weelee"), is recognised as a participant in the large merger proceedings before the Tribunal under the above case number:
2. Weelee's participation in the merger hearing before the Tribunal shall include the right:
 - 2.1. to have access to the Commission's record and any additional documents filed by the merger parties in the merger proceedings on the standard confidentiality arrangement whereby Weelee's lawyers and economists (if any) are given access to the confidential record on receipt of signed confidentiality undertakings.
 - 2.2. To lead the evidence of Weelee's Chief Executive Officer, Mr Marc Friedman limited to:
 - 2.2.1. the evidence contained in his witness statement; and
 - 2.2.2. to the extent that the evidence has not been led by the Commission in chief.
 - 2.3. To cross-examine the merging parties' witnesses, to the extent that such does not result in a duplication of the Commission's cross examination.
3. Weelee's rights granted in paragraph 2 above will be subject to:
 - 3.1. there being no disruption to the Tribunals' existing timetable for the hearing;
 - 3.2. adherence by Weelee to any timetable or time allocation set by the Tribunal for the proceedings before it; and
 - 3.3. limitations imposed by the Tribunal from time to time during the course of proceedings.
